

Larder and Fleet – Terms and Conditions (Brokerage & Curation Services)

1. Acceptance of Terms

By booking and paying for services through Larder and Fleet ("we," "our," or "us"), the client ("you") agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

Full payment of the quoted invoice constitutes your formal agreement to these terms and secures your event curation.

2. Payment Terms

Full Payment Upfront: To secure your date and allow Larder and Fleet to contract and book third-party suppliers (such as caterers, florists, and transport providers) on your behalf, 100% of the total quoted balance is due upfront at the time of booking.

Payment Processing: Once funds are cleared, Larder and Fleet will distribute payments to the respective third-party suppliers to lock in your event details.

3. Role as Broker and Third-Party Suppliers

Brokerage Role: Larder and Fleet acts as an event curator and broker, organizing, coordinating, and booking third-party suppliers (including catering, floral arrangements, and transportation) on behalf of the client.

Third-Party Liability: While we carefully select and manage all suppliers, Larder and Fleet acts strictly as a coordinator. We are not directly liable for any independent third-party performance failures, delays, menu adjustments, or cancellations by external vendors beyond our reasonable control (though we will make every effort to secure a suitable alternative).

4. Cancellations and Refunds

Client Cancellations: Because funds are immediately committed to third-party suppliers to reserve your date and services, cancellations made by the client are subject to the specific refund policies of those individual vendors.

Larder and Fleet retains its curation and coordination fee, and any non-refundable supplier deposits will be withheld.

Supplier Adjustments: If a specific third-party supplier becomes unavailable due to unforeseen circumstances, Larder and Fleet reserves the right to substitute them with a vendor of equivalent quality and style.

5. Guest Numbers and Dietary Requirements

Final Headcount: Final guest numbers must be provided at the time of booking or by our specified deadline. Because orders are locked in with caterers and suppliers based on this number, subsequent reductions cannot be refunded.

Allergies and Dietary Needs: You are responsible for providing all necessary allergy and dietary information for your guests at the time of booking. Larder and Fleet will relay this to our catering partners, but we do not assume liability for uncommunicated dietary restrictions.

6. Limitation of Liability and Force Majeure

Liability Cap: Larder and Fleet's total liability to the client for any claim arising out of our curation and brokerage services shall not exceed the total management/curation fee paid by the client to us.

Force Majeure: We are not liable for any failure to perform our obligations if caused by acts of God, extreme weather, strikes, government restrictions, transport shutdowns, or other emergencies beyond our control.

7. Governing Law

These terms and conditions are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

By booking services with Larder and Fleet, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions."
