

Legal Notice / Terms & Conditions

1. Overview

Larder & Fleet provides bespoke, land-based luxury concierge services, including curated provisioning, fine food and beverage coordination, artisanal floristry, event styling, and executive transport across the United Kingdom.

2. Operating Scope

We operate strictly on land within the UK, serving private estates, residences, and corporate clients.

3. Liability & Discretion

All curated services, third-party vendor arrangements, and extras (such as private chefs or musicians) are managed with the utmost discretion and professional care. Larder & Fleet acts as a coordinator to seamlessly orchestrate your bespoke requirements.

Privacy Policy

1. Information We Collect

We collect minimal personal data—such as your name, email address, telephone number, and specific event preferences—solely when you submit an inquiry or book our services through our landing page.

2. How We Use Your Information

Your data is used exclusively to communicate with you, coordinate your requested luxury services, and fulfill your bespoke itinerary. We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information with third parties outside of our verified operational partners necessary to deliver your service.

3. Data Security

We implement robust security measures to ensure your personal details and high-net-worth privacy are fully protected under UK data protection standards.
